

CPIS352 IS Enterprise Architecture

Assignment No 1

Due date: Wednesday 30/10/2013 @ 2:30 PM

Document format: Send your file in MS Word and PDF type.

As we know now there exists more than one framework to build enterprise architecture. Search the web to find about them and choose one. Read its methodology and its main concepts. Then, compare and contrast between the one you select and the one we are studying in this course, TOGAF.

These web sites will help you to understand about compare and contrast and how to do it? Please read through before doing this assignment.
