Subject of thesis is: Civil and Criminal Liability of Bewitched Person

Actions the used approach is Applied Juristic Study which included the magic matters that related to the research, the bewitched person, impact degrees, proofing and applying all results on Civil and Criminal Liability of Bewitched Person Actions.

The thesis consists of an introduction; six chapters included abstract which lead to the crux, and conclusion.

The Introduction: included reasons of choice this subject, approach of this research.

Abstract: included one chapter which explains the most important matters about magic

The Thesis Crux: included six chapters which explain the most important matters of the bewitched person volition and proofing applying Civil and Criminal Liability about this matter in terms of jurisprudence, another chapter related with Judicial Applications

Conclusion: included the most important results of the research subject