

- The doctor's look to the patient's genitals whether male or female for inspection and treatment in medical education.
- Death and its definition, signs and diagnosis.
- The judgment of a dead brain and return to life.
- Helping the one whose heart is dead but not the brain and removing the resuscitation sets from dead brain person.
- Health profession secrecy.
- Killing and death.
- The contradiction between the law or the administration order and Law of Islam (Sharia) in health practice.
- ❖ Organ transplant jurisprudence medical point of view (Legal means to access human organs donation and selling).
 - Transplant and transform of brain cells and the nervous system.
 - The medical benefit from aborted and extra fetus or brainless baby.
 - Transplant of genital glands and their organs.
 - Patient independence and model physician assisting committing suicide.
- ❖ Modernized moral issues:
 - Aging problems and the rights of the old.
 - Mercy killing and the right to end life and prevent intensive care.
 - The outcome rules for AIDS discovery.
 - Dermal patching.
 - Human skin banks.
 - The prohibited and extra impure materials in the industry of food and medication.
 - Ethics in healthcare and marketing.
 - Reaching of the human genome and its Islamic law effects.
 - Genetic engineering and its impact on man and man's food.
 - The DIVA use in proving lineage origin.
 - Hereditary guidance in the family scope.
 - Ethics in resource distribution.
 - Rights and commitments of handicapped and the psychological patients.
 - The Islamic law adopting for medical and life sciences.
 - The social responsibilities.

Course Outcomes

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

- Understanding the importance of ethics in work environment.
- Identifying students with medical ethics and medical (Fiqh) in Islam.
- Accessing the instructions and systems of medicine profession in the kingdom.
- Realizing the relationship between work ethics and organization objectives.
- Helping students to perfect the ethics and skills in dealing with patients, health team and community.
- Commitment to the general frame of behavior and ethics related to medical practice from an Islamic perspective.
- Ability to distinguish between the moral and immoral behavior.

Assessment Methods:

- Tests.
- Participation.
- Applied cases.
- Field visits

Text Book:

Darr, Kurt : Ethics In Health Services Management , Health Professions Press Inc., Baltimore, 4th edition , 2005.

Supplementary References:

Marcia (marti) Lewis : Medical Law, Ethics, & Bioethics for the Health Professions, Seventh Edition,
February 7, 2012 | ISBN-10: 0803627068 | ISBN-13: 978-0803627062 | Edition: 7

Time Table for Distributing Theoretical Course Contents

Week	Subject	Remarks
1	The physician's politeness
2	Moral principles and philosophy
3	Knowing and solving moral problems
4	The concept of morals in the Islamic thinking and its functions
5	Ethics of health professions
6	The general rules and intentions for the medical profession laws
7	Solution for moral issues
8	Moral decision taking guide
9	The concept of ethics in Islam and its function
10	Administration of moral issue
11	The Physician's jurisprudence in Islam
12	Vital moral medical issues
13	Vital moral medical issues
14	Modernized moral issues
15	Modernized moral issues
Final Exam		